Two new board members were elected at the annual meeting of the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club held at the club house Saturday, March 3 at 8 p.m. Henry Chapman and Horace Kergosien.

Members of the board reelected were Mrs. McDonald, Dr. Marion Wolfe, Mrs. Spence, Howard LeFever, Ed Hughes, J. J. Kelleher, Lucien Gex, L. Carter, Chas. Braseth, Jr., and Robert Camara.

John Bell, Commodore opened the meeting which followed the regular Sat night dinner with the statement that his ballots had been counted and that the new board had been reelected the addition of two new members and those of one, Leonard Nicholson who had requested that his name not be put up for election to the board this year.

He said that up to the time the club was organized he had received cooperation from the board of governors but claimed that after this period he had received no cooperation.

Mr. Bell then attempted to refute statements made in the letter sent to the members of the Yacht Club prior to the meeting for the election of officers. He made several suggestions which he stated were economical measures suggested by him for the more efficient running of the club. ## LOCAL WOMEN VOTERS ACCEPTED BY NATIONAL LEAGUE HEADQUARTERS

Mrs. Ernest Samuel, president of the local League of Women Voters has received a letter from National Headquarters stating that the status of the Bay St. Louis League which prior to this time has been provisional has been changed and that from this time forward the Bay St. Louis League will be known as a local league.

This means in effect that the activities of the Bay St. Louis group since the organization of the league here last year have been reported to the National board which has voted to accept the Bay St. Louis group as members of the National League with the privilege of using the National insignia.

The fact that the local league has been able to meet national standard will mean that they will become a part of all national projects of the League and will be expected to cooperate in these activities and will, in turn receive the cooperation of the National League in support of local projects.

A. C. MITCHELL HEADS CURRENT RED CROSS DRIVE

A. C. Mitchell, Clerk of Courts, will lead the 1951 Red Cross Fund Campaign in Hancock County, which officially started March 7. The goal for the local Chapter this year is $4,600.

Robert L. Hamilton will serve as public information chairman during the drive which has a national goal of $85,000,000. Mrs. Roger M. Boh, Sr., will be in charge of the business houses; Mrs. E. C. Carrara, the Waveland division; Lucy Belle, colored division; Mrs. Eunice Casanova, Logtown division; and Ethel Christmas, colored division in Logtown.

With the nation's military strength soaring towards a goal of many million men, the American Red Cross today faces its biggest job in serving the armed forces since the end of World War II.

Responsible for welfare aid to military personnel and their families, the Red Cross has spent over $500,000,000 in providing this service over the last ten years. That sum represents nearly half of the organization's total expenditures for the period.

Today with trouble in Korea and increased tension in Europe the Red Cross has more than 1,700 men and women serving in military installations. Of this number nearly 500 are on overseas duty in the Far East and in Europe.

A principal Red Cross task is to provide communication between servicemen and their families and to obtain information on home and medical conditions for the military authorities and to counsel on personal problems. These activities often involve financial help in emergencies.

During the last fiscal year field directors handled a monthly average of over 200,000 such cases and assisted a monthly average of 60,000 servicemen and their dependents.

This case load is increasing each month as the armed forces grow larger. In Korea during one month alone 2,500 cases were handled.

From these facts the public will realize that while the local goal may seem high our own share of the national budget is in proportion to the present expenditures necessary and will, it is to be hoped, give generously to those who are giving their time to the door to door fund campaign during the month of March.

Deadline for filing Homestead Exemptions for year 1951 is April 1, 1951. Check and see if you have filed for 1951 if not do so before the Deadline.

John A. Egloff Announces Candidacy For Sheriff & Tax Collector

Walter J. Phillips Announces For Representative

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of John A. Egloff for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County, Mississippi, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary election to be held August 7, 1951.

Mr. Egloff's statement to the voters follows:

TO THE CITIZENS AND VOTERS OF HANCOCK COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI.

I take this means of submitting to you my candidacy for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector.

Having been solicited by many voters and tax payers I decided to be a candidate for this all important office,

I am desirous at this time to announce my candidacy for Representative to the Mississippi State Legislature from Hancock County. I have resided in Bay St. Louis all of my life, have graduated from Bay High School. I attended the University of Mississippi, where I received a B.A. Degree and a Law Degree. I enlisted as a Private in the Infantry of the United States Army, and obtained a commission by going through Officers Candidate School, after serving as an enlisted man for over a year. After serving overseas with the 63rd Infantry Division, and in the Headquarters of the United States Forces in the European Theatre for twenty-two months, I was honorably separated from the services in October, 1946, as a First Lieutenant. After graduating from Law School, I engaged in the private practice of law in Bay St. Louis, and have practiced since June of 1947.

It is my intention, if elected, to do all in my power to adequately represent the citizens of Hancock County, and seek to secure from the State, benefits which are rightfully ours, and which have been denied to us in the past.

Two main planks of my platform

WILL BE THE ABOLITION OF PERSONAL TAX ON AUTOMOBILES, AND INCREASED OLD AGE BENEFITS

The automobile is no longer a luxury, but a necessity, and should not be taxed to such an extent as it is today. With the rising costs of living, the present old age benefits are totally inadequate to fulfill even the barest needs of our old people, and therefore, it is my opinion that these benefits should be substantially increased, and the awarding of said benefits should be made more liberal.

Respectfully submitted,

WALTER J. PHILLIPS

Chapman, Kergosien New Members On Board of Governors of B-W Yacht Club

Two new board members were elected at the annual meeting of the Bay-Waveland Yacht Club held at the club house, Saturday, March 3, at 8 p.m. They are Henry Chapman and Horace Kergosien.

Members of the board reelected were: McDonald, Dr. Marion Wolfe, L. V. Spence, Howard LeFleur, Ed Brinkman, J. J. Kalleher, Lucien Gex, W. L. Carter, Chas. Braseth, Jr., and Paul Camara.

John Bell, Commodore opened the meeting which followed the regular Saturday dinner with the statement that the ballots had been counted and that the new board had been reelected by the election of two new members and the loss of one, Leonard Nicholson who had requested that his name not be put up for election to the board this year.

Mr. Bell spoke of the inception and organization of the Yacht Club in the spring of 1949 and stated that the club had been built at a cost of approximately $23,800. He said that up to the time the club was organized he received cooperation from the men of governors but claimed that during this period he had received no cooperation.

Mr. Bell then attempted to refute statements made in the letter sent to the members of the Yacht Club prior to the meeting for the election of officers. He made several suggestions which he stated were economical measures supported by him for the more efficient running of the club. Included in these was the suggestion that club meals be served cafeteria style and that food be purchased retail instead of wholesale.

The present practice.

He also suggested volunteer accountants for the club's books be used instead of paying a fee to an accountant.

Mr. Bell then tendered his resignation as Commodore and asked Charles Heath, vice-commander to take over the meeting.

A motion was then made and seconded that Mr. Bell's resignation not be accepted and was later voted upon with an affirmative vote.

Mr. Wolfe contradicted Mr. Bell's statement as to the lack of cooperation from the board and said that, in his opinion, Mr. Bell had had more full cooperation from the governors than in cases where he thought that he had usurped prerogatives.

L. Carter, club counsel, made a statement that the board members, the commodore and members of the club kept their differences and pull together for the good of the Yacht Club.

Carter followed his talk with a motion to the effect that the board of governors at the next meeting appoint a committee of five, two of whom would be members of the board of three others at large, to meet before the annual meeting and discuss the same and if advisable draw up any by-laws and submit same to members to be voted upon.

An amendment to this motion was introduced and the motion seconded, carried and passed.

Approximately two hundred and fifty members were present at the meeting. The attendance prize, a cake baked by Mrs. Walter Gex was won by Mrs. Schaff.

John A. Egloff Announces Candidacy For Sheriff & Tax Collector

Walter J. Phillips Announces For Representative

We are authorized to announce the candidacy of John A. Egloff for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County, Mississippi, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary election to be held August 7, 1951.

Mr. Egloff's statement to the voters follows:

TO THE CITIZENS AND VOTERS OF HANCOCK COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI.

I take this means of submitting to you my candidacy for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector.

Having been solicited by many voters and tax payers I decided to be a candidate for this all important office.

You having honored me by electing me to this office before in the primaries of 1943.

In making my announcement I am well aware of the many duties and responsibilities that go with this office and I am confident, if elected, I will be able to discharge the duties of this office capably and efficiently and give to the people of the County an efficient, honest and able administration.

In my humble opinion, I believe that I have rendered that service in the Sheriff's Office when I served you before for four (4) years. I believe that my service met with the approval of the people by my giving the office my undivided attention, and I expect to render that same courteous and efficient service again. I point to my record as Sheriff with pride, and my cooperation and work with the Officers of the State Auditor, Motor Vehicle Comptroller, Public Safety Commissioner and the other law enforcement Officers and the attorneys of the Court from 1944 to 1948 is a testimonial to my service.

I expect to have the Sheriff's Office renovated so it will take care of the overcrowded taxpayers who are jammed in such a small space, making it more accommodating to the taxpayers.

It will also be my desire and hope to have a two way radio system installed, this being the only link between New Orleans and Mobile which does not have a two-way radio set up. By this method each deputy in the five beats will be able to combat crime and give the people the protection which they are due day and night.

As to my personal background, I would like to give the following short biographical sketch:

I am 45 years old and was born and reared in Hancock County, the son of the late F. H. Egloff and Marie Surcouf who were likewise born and reared in this County. In my early school days I attended the public schools and later attended St. Stanislaus where I graduated as a member of the Class of 1926. In December, 1932, I married Miss Mable Cuevas of Kiln and we are blessed with three children, before I was elected to the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector I was connected with the Coast Electric Power Association for over six years. After leaving the Sheriff's Office I served as deputy sheriff until May, 1949, when I resigned to go to work with the United States Department of Commerce.

It is my desire to see every voter in the County personally before the primaries in August, and I shall endeavor so to do, but, am taking this means of asking each and every voter to give my candidacy his and her earnest and careful consideration.

Respectfully yours,
JOHN A. EGLOFF

SHOULD BE STOPPED

There is already or should be, a law limiting the amount of time a railroad train should be allowed to block a street crossing within the city limits. We know for certain that numerous appeals have been made to the city officials and also directly to the railroad officials through the Chamber of Commerce and other civic clubs but nothing is ever done to remedy the situation. And it is high time that something be done.

Think of what might happen if there was a fire in progress and the fire engine was held up at a blocked crossing. Or if an ambulance was on its way to a hospital with a patient—perhaps in a dying condition. Or if you missed out on a business deal because of time lost at a blocked crossing. These and many other things are to be considered in this matter, besides it is both aggravating and tiresome to sit for periods of from five to thirty minutes waiting for a train to pull out and clear the crossing.

On last Friday night about twenty-five or thirty automobiles with their occupants were held up for approximately thirty minutes because crossings were blocked clear across town by a freight train. Many of these people were on their way to Church to attend Lenten services and when the crossing was finally cleared it was too late to go to Church because services were nearly over.

We believe this situation could be remedied if the Mayor and City Commissioners would contact the proper railroad authorities and explain to them just what is happening. We feel sure they would be willing to cooperate and that a solution would be forthcoming.

WHAT ABOUT OUR SAND BEACH

Here it is just two weeks away from Easter weekend, at which time the "summer" season along the Coast usually begins, and what have we to offer visitors to our town? Plenty of salt water to swim in but not a decent beach, while all along the coast from Henderson Point to Ocean Springs sand beaches are being built. How can we compete with these places unless we do something about it. And what are we doing about it? NOTHING!

The American Legion is sponsoring a movement to build a sand beach and public pier, at the head of Washington Street and they are asking the cooperation of the public. We feel quite sure all could be of some help in one way or another, so if you are interested in building your community contact the committee in charge of this project and offer your assistance. It will be appreciated and you will be proud of the results.

EX-SERVICEMEN MAY QUALIFY FOR TOP THREE GRADES IN ORC

Captain Clayton M. Taylor, Army Corps Instructor for the Mississippi Gulf Coast Reserve Units, still serves as a member of the Reserve Units still active, and some of his former students are now serving in the "ex-Fire" Third, Graves, and other enlisted men of the Armed Forces. Captain Taylor stated that a majority of certain specialists within the local units had created a limited number of vacancies for qualified ex-servicemen.

Commanders of these units, are in all cases, men with previous experience as officers, and a large portion of junior officers and non-commissioned officers have had combat experience.

All ex-servicemen are urged to investigate the possibilities of earning extra money by enlisting in one of the Gulf Coast Army Reserve Units. Speaking of pay, Capt. Taylor pointed out that reservists receive one full day's pay by attending a scheduled paid drill conducted by their unit. At present the Army counts all honorable service in the regular forces or reserve for the reservist's longevity pay.

The Unit Instructors' Offices on the each week from 18 year old men and their parents as to the draft status of coast are receiving numerous queries men in that age group. Although there has been no decision on the induction of 18 year old men, they will have every advantage by enlisting in one of the local Army Reserve Units by affiliating themselves with the Army Reserve, and promotions; but will enter active military service with old friends in the events of a total mobilization of the armed forces.

MOTHERS CLUB, S. J. A. REGULAR MEETING

The Mothers Club of St. Joseph's Academy met Tuesday at 3 p.m. in the Convent den with Mrs. V. J. Piazza and Mrs. Scott Assenheimer as co-hostesses.

It was announced that a profit of $884.19 had been made on the Carnival Ball and Mrs. Moises Garcia, stated that a note of thanks had been sent to all those who had made contributions of material, money or time to the ball.

Mrs. Henry Chapman made a motion which was seconded by Mrs. T. C. Elliott that a check for $900 be given to Mother Mary of the Rosary, the difference to be taken from the Mother's Club treasury. The motion was passed as was a motion made by Mrs. Elliott that $5.00 be given to the Red Cross.

Mother Mary thanked everyone who had helped with the Carnival ball and commented upon the congeniality with which all had worked together.

It was decided that the Mothers' Club would entertain the veterans at a party the fourth Tuesday in April a special meeting to be called in the near future to make plans for the party.

The attendance prize was won by the fourth grade and Mrs. Willard Henderson won the entrance prize.

Since this is the Lenten season a reported plant was given instead of refreshments. This was drawn by Mrs. H. Ryland. Twenty members of the Club attended the meeting.

HARRIET CRAIG OPENS STAR THEATRE SCREEN WED. THURS. & FRI.

A smiling and vivacious woman at war with everything and everyone who stands in her way, one of the most unusual and sensational roles of her career in "Carnival Pictures" "Harriet Craig," coming 14-15-16 to the Star Theatre. Wendell Corey is co-starred in the movie which has been hailed in many quarters as one of the five best of the year.

Based on the celebrated Pulitzer Prize winning play, "Craig's Wife," by George Kelly, "Harriet Craig" enables Miss Crawford to give a provocative interpretation of a type of role that has always delighted her fans. As a woman who has known both hunger and insecurity, Miss Crawford gives an authoritative portrait of a fascinating creature who stops at nothing to protect herself in the position she had reached. For her new role, Miss Crawford has been outfitted in a stunning wardrobe that enhances the famous Crawford figure. Wearing a daring new hairstyle that will undoubtedly sweep the country, the star is, if anything, more glamorous than ever.

As "Harriet Craig," Miss Crawford is married to Corey, a devoted, adoring husband. Cleverly, she has tied him to her with a thousand little strands, thereby cutting him off from his former friends, making herself pre-eminent in his life. Her anchor in life is her home, in which she lavishes all her energies until it becomes the dominant passion in her life. Her husband, secure in her grip, becomes secondary. But then her outward poise, her glacial calm, is shattered when her husband learns of the life he has lived.

Appearing in featured support of the stars are Lucile Watson, as a skittish socialite who penetrates beneath Miss Crawford's assured exterior; Ally Jolley, as Corey's hale-fellow-well-met friend; William Bishop, as Corey's business associate, and K. T. Stevens as Miss Crawford's cousin whose romance with Bishop is almost blighted by Miss Crawford.

Anne Froelick and James Gunn penned the screen play for "Harriet Craig." Vincent Sherman, who also directed Miss Crawford in "The Damned Don't Cry," guided her present starring vehicle. William Dozier produced.

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

By JAMES L. BISHOP
Soil Conservation Service

Horace Neece, owner of H. C. Neece farm in Civitanova Community completed planting ten acres of kudzu on steep eroded land last week. Neece will keep the kudzu cultivated until late summer. This will keep down the grass and weeds and allow the kudzu to spread much faster. The fresh plowed soil will permit the kudzu to put new roots at each joint on the new vine, thus a quick cover is established for fall grazing and erosion control. Voorhees, a cooperator with the Hancock County Soil Conservation District, planted eight acres of Kentucky 31 Fescue and white dutch clover and four acres of re-seeding crimson clover with Pensacola narrow-leaf Bahia grass last fall. Cows are grazing on this pasture and are producing twice as much milk than they were on open range land.

Soil Conservation Service technicians assisted R. B. Shaw, Hugh Ladner, Joseph L. Ladner of Neece Crossing and D. D. Pittman of Flattop Community survey terraces on their farms during the last few days.

Jessie L. Davis, Flattop Community, planted Bicolor border strip on the north side of a field last week. Trees are growing close to the field during the summer when it is dry, grass or crops will not grow under shade of the trees, thus the soil is left unprotected and washes easy during heavy rains. Bicolor is a deep-rooted perennial which grows well around the field border, if properly planted on three-foot beds, fertilized and cultivated, it will provide ground cover to protect soils from erosion and provide food cover for quail.

The value of construction contracts awarded in Mississippi during January 1951 rose by 8.1 percent as compared with January 1950, according to the current issue of the Mississippi Business Review. Construction contracts awarded in Mississippi totaled $6,233,000 for January 1951 and $3,427,000 for January 1950.

Captain and Mrs. Karl Craft will open Anchorage Inn with a crab boil on Friday night beginning at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Craft, who is an authority on food, having broadcast a radio program on recipes and food values over station WOW in Omaha for four years, said that the Inn will feature family style meals and a special children's plate. She stated that particular attention would be given to cleanliness and that the kitchen would be equipped with an automatic dish washer and other modern equipment.

There will be drive-in service with hamburgers and the old fashioned "hot dog" with sauerkraut and a nickel cup of coffee.

PARTNERS IN MISSISSIPPI'S PROGRESS

Ready and Eager to Help!

Last year, Mississippi's 1,100 sawmills turned out a 132 million dollar stack of lumber which brought the people of our state three times as much as they received from lumbering in 1940—the last pre-World War II year.

Yes, our great and growing lumber industry has added much to the peace-time prosperity of our state, and it will increase our importance to the nation in the present emergency. And lumbering, like all of Mississippi's industries, is ready and eager to be of the utmost help.

Along with lumbering and many other great industries of our state, your telephone system has a much greater capacity now than ever before to help speed needed production of farm and factory. Since January 1, 1946 Southern Bell has expended more than 45 million dollars for new telephone facilities in Mississippi—increasing the number of subscribers in the state by 103,269 to a new high of 219,143 subscribers!

Responding to the continuing demand for more telephones, which always accompanies the need for increased production and efficiency, Southern Bell plans to continue to expand service in Mississippi as rapidly as conditions permit.

Mrs. John Bell Resigns As Business Manager Of Little Theatre

Mrs. Oliver Radford, president of the Bay St. Louis Little Theatre has announced that the board of the Little Theatre has received with regret the resignation of Mrs. John Bell as business manager. Mrs. Bell's resignation was brought about by the pressure of personal, business affairs which made it impossible for her to spare sufficient time to handle the business management of the Theatre.

Mrs. Radford has asked that members of the Little Theatre who plan to renew their subscriptions send in their membership fees and suggests that those who wish to take out membership cards do so in the near future so that their cards may be mailed in time to admit them to the first play of the season beginning March 29.

Bay St. Louis—Seven young theologians of St. Augustine's Seminary, Bay St. Louis, reached two milestones on their way to the Holy Priesthood when they were ordained on Saturday, Feb. 24, in the Seminary chapel. The Most Rev. Richard O. Gerow, DD, Bishop of Natchez, presided as the ordaining prelate. Due to illness, His Excellency was unable to be present at the previous ordination.

The two milestones spoken of were the ordination to the last two minor orders of Lectorate and Ostiariate and to the Diaconate. Receiving minor orders and thereby completing the first rung on their ascent to the Priesthood were Fraters Thaddeus Boucree, SVD; New Orleans, La.; Gerald Lewis, SVD; La Boca, Canal Zone; Paul Neale, SVD; Baltimore, Md.; Hubert Singleton, SVD; Lake Charles, La., and Vance Thorne, SVD; Washington, N. C.

Two subdeacons, Rev. Mr. John Leauve, SVD, Abbeville, La., and Rev. Mr. Leonard Olivier, SVD, Lake Charles, La., took their final step before the Priesthood. They were ordained diaconates. The two newly ordained deacons will be ordained to the Priesthood on June 29, 1951, thus bringing the number of Colored priests ordained at St. Augustine's Seminary up to twenty-six.

D. W. ELLONIT

"Thought" has power to build empires or to create nations. It sustains individuals through successful lives. Serious thought and ponderings over a question will always bring to light the simplest solution. This very land we live in was found because of a man with an idea and the serious thinking about his idea. Our country was founded by a small band of thinking men. And the Declaration of Independence was drafted by one of the greatest and deepest thinkers of this wonderful nation. Many of his ideas were adapted into the Constitution of his native state, Virginia and also into the Constitution of the United States.

Have you ever read these documents—the Declaration of Independence, or the Constitution of the United States? There is evidence and proof all in one glaring at you from these immortal words. Thought—deep everlasting and serious thought—was indulged in before a word was put to paper.

Thomas Jefferson, the third President of the United States and founder of the Democratic Party was one of the truly great liberals of modern times. He believed, spoke, fought and wrote for the rights of the individual. He firmly believed in Democracy in its purest form and would not tolerate such monarchies and strong central government under one man such as existed in England. He could not look favorably upon Britain for this very reason.

One of the most recent Jeffersonian train of thought parties is our own States-Rights or Dixiecrats. I think the Dixiecrats, as dubbed, is in reality what Jefferson had in mind when he founded the Democratic party. Today, the nearest thing to his original Democrats is the "Dixiecrats." The evolutionized Democratic party as it exists today is a far cry from the original group of liberal leaders whose main purpose and thought was for the people and their interests. The strong central powers of the party today is indeed enough to make "its father" turn over under his epitaph.

Hamilton was a military man. He thought as a combat commander must think in times of action. His decisions were made promptly, firmly and he sought to carry them out. In the Army, he rose from a Captaincy to a Lt. Colonel, and side-de-camp to General Washington. (He should stand in the army.) Hamilton's policies as Treasurer in Washington's cabinet later, were in constant conflict with Jefferson's, who was then Secretary of State.

Perhaps if Alexander Hamilton had taken time to think out his actions and differences he would not have died on July 12, 1804 from wounds sustained the day before in a duel with Aaron Burr.

Whether Hamiltonian or Jeffersonian—Republican or Democrat—it is the solemn duty of all leaders, elected by the people, to uphold the Constitution—not by brash action; through unthoughtful methods, or by fits of temper. They are there for our good and at our will; they must perpetrate their duties for the good and well being of all. It would be a good thing for each Congressman, to read the Constitution of the United States through each day before going to vote on a particular issue. It would be well for the President to recite the Declaration of Independence, before setting his hand to paper to sign a bill or a note to Congress (or anyone).

While it is true that the Constitution embraces all peoples of this land under its protection and laws; granting them all the freedoms of speech, etc., it seems that the caliber of men chosen by our leaders should be above the average. The people of this country are free to choose their leaders. The office of the President is a high office and should be filled with men who are fit to hold the top.
